'Sculptural Minimalism' has been a guiding principle since the beginning of Kristina Dam Studio, influenced by movements like Bauhaus and Japanese design. Our goal has always been to create pieces that are minimalist yet impactful, functional yet artistic.

– Kristina Dam

The 2025 collection embodies our ongoing passion for synthesizing art and architecture, offering timeless designs that transform your home into a space of creativity, serenity, and curated beauty.

Kristina Dam Studio create both sculptural objects and designs that elevate your sculptures and treasures. The 2025 collection celebrates the art of displaying your most cherished items, transforming your space into an Artistic Home. The home should be a place where the beauty of art integrates seamlessly into everyday life. By normalizing the presence of sculptures and artistic objects, we aim to bring art out of the exclusive realm and into communal spaces. Our philosophy 'Sculptural Minimalism' continues to guide us, as we design products that merge functionality with aesthetic refinement.

The 2025 Collection

*“My philosophy has always revolved around the idea that our surroundings shape who we are.
Creating a space that reflects creativity brings light, calm, and peace into everyday life.”
– Kristina Dam*

Japanese

Cabinets

Inspired by Japanese design tradition, Kristina Dam Studio has created a Scandinavian take on a series of cabinets for displaying your favorite items at home. The Japanese Cabinets focuses on clean, straight lines and is made from warm, oiled oak and tempered glass. The Japanese Cabinet is either open or partially open, depending on the size, supporting countless styling options and providing space for decorative items, art, and books.

Japanese Serie

Inspired by Japanese design, Kristina Dam Studio has created a Scandinavian interpretation of a cabinet, a pedestal, and tray tables. The Japanese Series shares a common theme of multifunctionality and a warm, clean aesthetic – focuses on straight lines and made from warm, oiled oak with walnut details, giving the design a timeless and elegant expression.

Japanese Pedestal

A pedestal showcases a sculpture or artwork better than anything else. With its minimalist, Japanese-inspired design language, the Japanese Pedestal is designed to elevate the visual appeal of your art object and make it the centerpiece in your home. Details such as the faceted top and elevated base make the Japanese Pedestal a refined, timeless design. The Japanese Pedestal is crafted from oiled oak veneer and solid oak.

Outline

Chair & Bar Chair

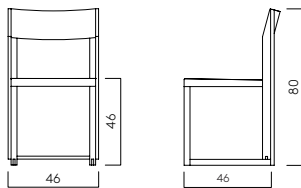

The Outline series, born from a desire for minimal yet essential spaces that encourage forward thinking and outward looking perspectives includes a desk, chair, and bar chair. Each piece showcases craftsmanship and humility with architectural clarity and grace. The series understated details reveal themselves upon closer inspection, enhancing its minimalist, airy aesthetic. This makes the Outline series versatile, easily fitting into various interior design styles. Comprising FSC®-certified oak and stainless steel rectangles, the series embodies the visual harmony at the heart of Kristina Dam Studio's ethos of Sculptural Minimalism.

Lounge Chair

The Solitude Lounge Chair features a minimalist, distinct aesthetic with strong references to the geometries of the Bauhaus movement. With its uniquely offset armrests, the Solitude Chair seamlessly combines form and function. These armrests are not only an aesthetic choice but also invite a variety of comfortable seating positions, such as lounging with legs draped over the lower armrest, redefining the lounge chair concept. Crafted from a coarse woven Italian bouclé in grey and off white, it contrasts elegantly with its brushed stainless steel frame. A true statement piece, the Solitude Chair embodies a fusion of art and design, offering both visual appeal and comfort.

Artwork & Sculpture Collection

Sculpture

Aspect Sculpture

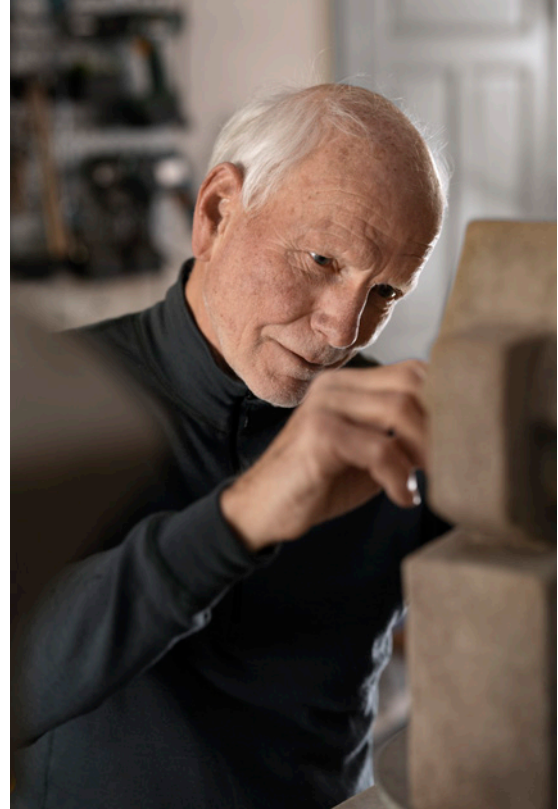

The Aspect Sculpture represents the female body, where symmetry and shifting perspectives come together. This combination makes the sculpture visually intriguing, compelling the viewer to pause and reflect. The two circles symbolize the Japanese concept of Wa, which represents harmony within the community. The circle on the face signifies space for imagination and thought, while the circle on the abdomen represents fertility.

Designed by Henning Tais Hedin, an artist dedicated to working with geometric forms and sculptural design, Aspect Sculpture draws inspiration from archaeology. Hedin expresses his vision through simple, primordial shapes where refined minimalism meets cultural symbolism, capturing the essence of the sculpture with timeless elegance and powerful visual impact.

Capital Podium

With its elevated base, the Capital Podium lifts sculptures, vases, or candles, transforming them into a striking centerpiece. Multiple podiums can be stacked to create a decorative, sculptural element. Made from solid oak treated with sunflower oil, the Capital Podium enhances the wood's natural warmth and character.

Wooden Sphere

The Wooden Sphere's elegant design beautifully displays smaller items, making it highly sought after. Two turned wooden bowls combine to form a Japanese inspired sphere. Use it for storage, or separately as trays or vessels.

Vases & Flowerpots

Collar Vases

With its simple and sculptural design, the Collar Vase is a perfect example of Kristina Dam Studio's philosophy of 'Sculptural Minimalism'. Made from terracotta with a matt brown finish, it is glazed on the inside, making it waterproof and suitable for wild bouquets and single branches. The Collar Vase is available in two sizes, each with a distinctive shape.

Rugs

Oru Loom Rugs

Inspired by the traditional Japanese Tatami mat, the Oru Loom Rugs are expressive, minimalistic pieces of high quality. These rugs create a calm and clean frame within interiors, making them ideal for lounge areas. 'Oru', the Japanese word for 'weave', perfectly describes the creation process. The Oru Loom Rugs, woven from wool and jute, add a tactile element to living spaces.

Bow Series

The Bow Series, designed to be both understated and visually engaging, blends tranquility with distinctive materiality, making a statement in any bedroom. Inspired by furniture strapping, the design is strikingly geometric yet soothingly simple. The straps fold around the bedspread and pillows, slightly protruding from the edges, drawing inspiration from raw upholstery and adding an artisanal touch.

Professional

At Kristina Dam Studio, we design sculptural objects and furniture that bring unique character to any space while remaining functional and comfortable. We understand that detail is crucial in professional projects and that deadlines are often tight. That's why we strive to be your preferred partner by meeting your specific needs: durable furniture and accessories that add a personal touch. All our products undergo stringent testing and certification to meet the demands of fast-paced environments.

We're here to support every stage of your project, from design to implementation. Most of our designs are in stock, and with a professional account, you can request detailed specifications or quotes through our B2B platform. Contact us at order@kristinadam.dk to learn more about our professional offerings and make your next project a success.

Accessible Data

We respect your creative process and understand that technical data must be accessible. In our image bank, you can download 2D and 3D files, care instructions and images whenever needed. Visit kristinadam.dk making it easy for you to complete your next project.

A white, modern side table with a flat top and three large, rounded, U-shaped legs. On the table, from left to right, are a small glass jar, a stack of three smooth stones, a book, and a dark brown, flared vase.

Case Study 3 Days of Design

During 3daysofdesign 2024, Kristina Dam Studio furnished an apartment in the historic design house Frederiksgade 1, with a breathtaking view of the Marble Church in central Copenhagen.

Through the apartment's three spacious rooms, visitors were invited into Kristina Dam's universe of sculptural minimalism, where Kristina Dam Studio's 2024 Collection was presented. The exhibition included the Foldable furniture series in stainless steel and the sculptural Solitude armchair. These elements were beautifully combined with draped textiles and Kristina Dam's own handcrafted creations in ceramics and on canvas, giving the rooms an intimate and homely feel.

Home Story Michael Falgren

Join photographer Michael Falgren Sertdemir as he takes us on a tour of his minimalist and dynamic home, a former restaurant in central Copenhagen. The walls remain raw, the floors carry the scent of jasmine, and the rooms are defined by delicate curtains, warm oak furniture, and sculptural steel details.

I've transformed the apartment into a large open space, replacing the old doors with wall sections, and now the rooms are divided by curtains. This creates a dynamic flow throughout the apartment. I chose a sisal carpet for the floor, which massages your feet and has a jasmine scent. The large open space serves as a music room, workspace, and bedroom, with the area around the bed made more private by the airy curtains. I've decorated the room with books and ceramics from around the world, as well as scented stones. I love stones.

I've kept the kitchen in the same style as when it was a restaurant. Unfortunately, I couldn't preserve the original tiles, so I replaced them with tiles from File Under Pop in the same format to retain the industrial feel. The greenish tint of the tiles contrasts beautifully with the ship-lacquered concrete floor, which has a golden, yellow resin color.

My home reflects who I am as a photographer and a person. I love working from home, and I use it as visual inspiration.

"I prefer the imperfect. In my world, there's nothing beautiful about perfection. Only the imperfect can be beautiful. That's why I stopped the renovation process before the walls were fully limewashed. The walls have a lot of texture, and the play of light they create is, in my opinion, incredibly beautiful."

Case Study Meyers Bakery

Claus Meyer, a leading figure in Danish gastronomy for over 30 years, owns the iconic Meyers Bakery at Gammel Kongevej 107 in Frederiksberg. Known for its legendary cinnamon buns, the bakery offers a mix of savoury and sweet delights in its cosy café.

The recently renovated interior features warm oak wall panels, windows, and brown ceramic tiles, creating an inviting atmosphere. Guests can enjoy their treats from elevated seats with direct views of the bakery, sitting on our Outline Bar Chairs in oiled oak, which complement the overall design.

Case Study Café Patio

Tucked away from the main street of Helsingør in Denmark, Café Patio is located in a charming little courtyard with cobblestones. The menu offers barista coffee, natural wine, and exquisite taste experiences, but it's not just the menu that has been carefully crafted. The interior of Patio is thoughtfully designed down to the smallest detail, drawing in visitors from far and wide with its serene and elegant atmosphere.

The raw space, with concrete floors, is tastefully arranged into different zones, highlighting natural materials like oak, stone, and stainless steel, which give the place a minimalist feel, inspired by Japanese design. Floating shelves display a selection of locally made ceramics and artworks, alongside our signature Column Bowl in oiled oak.

At the heart of the room, the Outline Chair sets the scene for intimate dinners around a large communal table. From the raised seating on the Outline Bar Chairs, guests can take in the view of the charming courtyard.

Case Study

RevitalizeDNA

Three hundred years ago, Gl. Kongevej in Frederiksberg, Denmark, was the Royal Family's route out of the city before Frederiksberg Allé was built in the 1700s. Today it is a popular high street, offering an array of local and exclusive shops and brands.

Gl. Kongevej 109 houses RevitalizeDNA, an exclusive beauty clinic focusing on their client's well-being. The interior was recently updated with soothing colours and a high focus on designs in natural materials that together create a space of calmness perfect for a relaxing treatment.

Darling Creative Studio is the creator of the updated interior and has selected our Geometric Wall Lamp Small throughout the space creating a coherent and minimalist expression. At the same time, the Collector Chair, Stool and Table, all in lacquered oak, add a warm and welcoming feeling to the tranquil space.
